Subscribe to a 2000+ Video clip repository for use by your faculty. Use of the repository will be made available for the subscription period to all faculty you identify at your college or location.

*Pricing is per each 12 month academic year and is for one campus, college, or location within an educational institution. Please call for information on pricing for systems with multiple locations.

Subscribing institutions must have a course management system (Blackboard, WebCT, D2L, etc.) in place and allow the repository to authenticate using an URL unique to their CMS.

Current licensees of DTL courseware (must also be reporting enrollments and paying enrollment fees) are eligible for a 25% discount off of the prices outlined.

*Discounted pricing of 50% off is available for members of consortia - call for more information.
